GARDNER'S LAWYER GRILLS FOELKER; FORCES HIM TO TELL OF OUEER CHECK

WEATHER-Pair To-Night; Friday Cloudy.

"Circulation Books Open to All."

Morio.

"Circulation Books Open to All."

PRICE ONE CENT.

PRICE ONE CENT.

Copyright, 1911, by The Press Publishing

NEW YORK.

16, 1911.

18 PAGES

AT GARDNER TRIAL

AIRMAN FALLS INTO RIVER: BIPLANE HITS SHIP'S MAST ON FLIGHT FROM JERSEY

Charles F. Morok, Belgian Daredevil, Strikes Snag on His Way to Central Park.

MACHINE SINKS.

But Adventurous Pilot Is Rescued and Needs Only a Drying Out.

sional daredevil, tried to fly from the Guttenberg Race Track to Columbus Circle this afternoon at ten minutes before I o'clock. His motor broke down he tried to volptane to the Hudson River and snagged himself on the mast schooner anchored a hundred ya off West Shore Grain Elevator No. in Hoboken and was whirled into the His Schneider biplane sank. was rescued and taken to New York to be dried and warmed.

The last time Morok made the attempt to fly from New Jersey to New York in the Christmas bolidays he into the side of James Wynne of Union Hill. from his starting point.

Great crowds had lined the edge" the Palisades and the cliff roads and the pler bulkheads of Weehawken to witness to-day's flight. Morok, who is a Belgian and used to thrill circus andiences as Diavolo, the human loop the loop artist, was impressively confident of easy success.

Await a Landing

On this side of the river thousands street, where Morok intended to alight, brakes. The train came to a suiden keep her audience waiting in order to Morek left his hangar at the Gurtoncoming to the river at the point where dragged him for several yards. the cliffs of the Palisades meet the low flats of the Weehawken Railroad yards. When employees climbed down to the flats of the Weehawken Railroad yards.

Palisades and had the river beneath several bad lacerations. He was taken Columbus Circle. He was then about think he will die. opposite Seventy-sixth street. He heard. The only clue to the man's place of something snap back of him and his residence was found on a bit of paper, motor stopped with a snari.

said, "and down the river, I saw a street. boat anchored off the Weekswhen Samuel Silverton, No. 548 West One of the Weekswhen Samuel Silverton, No. 548 West One of the Weekswhen Samuel Silverton, No. 548 West One of the Manual Silverton, No like machine caught and whirled about plunged in front of the train. It like a poison beetle trying to sting it

Machine Sinks.

The machine sank immediately, but Morok, in spite of the two pairs of trousers and the three sweaters he were. The Nuncipal Art Commission met t of the two pairs of managed to keep affort until Glen Pol- day and accepted the offer of Mrs. Marlard and Frank Moore, West Shore em- garet Olivia Sage to provide a find of players, reached him in a launch and $25,000 to meet the extense of restoring outlied blue aboard. They wanted to the retunda of the City Hall.

(Continued on Second Page.)

FIGHTS OFF MAN TO LEAP IN FRONT OF SUBWAY TRAIN

C.F. MOROK.

and Is So Seriously Injured He May Die.

pation and place of residence are not going to have you arrested." went to Columbus avenue soon after-known, this afternoon jumped from the track at high speed, heading stap, throwing the passengers from their track at high speed, heading seats and creating a small panie. In court Robinson said his horse bestraight east to the edge of the Pul- sears and creating a small panic. In three hundred feet over Union Hill, man, the first car struck Fox and away when the collision occufred.

When employees climbed down to the station it was found that he had a When he shot over the edge of the fractured skull, internal injuries and im Morok turned his machine toward to the Harlem Hospital. The doctors which contained the address No. 294

He almed so straight that a wing of Jumped, but the young man broke from his bi-plane hit the must and the bury- the clutch of his woud-be savior and #### to death. It bounced off and fell into ACCEPT MRS. SAGE'S OFFER.

Commissioners Will Use $25,000 to Restore City Hall Rotunds.

"No, no," cried Morok. "There are carry Mrs. Sage's idea into offer and causing great suffering in the poorer Grosvenor Atterbury was appended districts. Thirty below is reported along the Adrondara Railroad line,

WHAT'S GOING ON?

The Subway negotiations are taking place in the dark. The public is without knowledge as to what is taking place. It is to be "informed" when something "definite" is arrived at. The city officials who are charged with the duty of providing decent transit have no right to conceal their proceedings. The public is entitled to, and should get, a frank daily report of every step taken, or attempted to be taken. Mr. Mc-Aneny and his colleagues are dealing with public funds and the

ADELE RITCHIE STOPS RUNAWAY TEAM ON BRIDGE

Horse After Truck Crashes Into Her Automobile.

Stamps Her Foot in Court at Magistrate Who Fails to Punish Driver.

by drivers of other vehicles and passen-bridge in her limousine, driven by Matthew T. Sparr of No. 1291 Bedford was Hiram S. Robinson, thirty years old, a painter, of No. 196 Ellery street. Williamsburg, driving the truck. The

The wagon smashed into the auto, bursting a tire Mark Fox Attempts Suicide and jamming the car against the rail Actress Seizes Bridle.

bridge. But the actress, with her long

Policeman Bolz came up and at Miss came unmanageable and was running "It's not true," Miss Ritchie told Magistrate Hylan, in a loud and armry "This man was appoying the way over the bridge. He w let us pass, and when my chautried, near the terminal, he deliberately ran into us.

"Well, the man says his horse got be "I'll parole bim until to-morrow. "I call it an outrage, Your Honor," "Eleven hundred feet below." he later East One Hundret and Thirteenth said Miss Ritchie, and stamped her foot This man ought to be punished. He deliberately tried to run us down."

> "Yes, and I'll be right here to see she left the court.

38 BELOW ZERO UP-STATE: COLDEST DAY OF THE YEAR.

Frigid Weather Brings Much Suffering in Adirondacks Region-

Woman Dead From Cold, nead. Then the boy dashed to the SARATOGA. ... Y., Feb. 16-The street, yelling "Police" lower Adirondacks to-day are in the grip of an intense cold wave, which is along the Adlrendara Railroad line, speed. while thirty-two and thirty-eight below are the low marks in the interior, making a low temperature record for the winter. Mrs. Atlant Potter was found frozen at her hance in Greenfield this pouce increased the aurin. Manmorning and there is attle chance for quiries. MIDDLETOWN, S. Y. Feb. 15.-Reports from various puris of Orange and adjoining counties showed that this part of the State. The thermometer registered from 13 to 17 below zero. Rates, impossibly retained and income and in

FOELKER TRAPPED MASKED BANDIT SHOOTS MAN IN HOTEL HOLD-UP

Actress Clings to Bridle of Robbers at the Frederick Foiled by Bravery of Clerk Who is Wounded.

BIG CROWD SEES FEAT, FLEE IN AN AUTO.

Employee Tries to Grab Intruder, Who Fires and Then

Dashes Away.

man with easy, graceful manners and a yn, this afternoon, was the chief actor soft, well modulated voice, and the n an exciting collision between her au- other a large man, his face covered omobile and a heavy truck on the south | with a black mask and armed with roadway of the Williamsburg Bridge, As long-barrelled 44-calibre revolver, at the struggled about in the melting snow tempted to hold up the Hotel Frederick and slush hanging to the bridle of a No. 210 West Fifty-sixth street, at olunging horse she was roundly cheered o'clock this morning. The attempt bravery of Robert G. Barnard, hotel clerk.

The men drove up to the front of the hotel in a big touring car. The two in avenue. Brooklyn. In front of them the tonneau alighted and the chauffeur was instructed to wait. Then the swing ing outer vestibule door was carefully unninged so that one could escape from

The well-dressed man nto the corridor and went to the clerk's office in the rear. The arrangement of the office is such that no one can be seen coming in from the street door The corridor also has many paims and

As the first man walked to the des whipped him up, trying to drive off the a bellboy alw the second man coming fur boa flapping in the wind, jumped out als face, but the boy at the moment He was carefully arranging a mask over ward and stood about watching the skies until most of the population of that quarter of the city was excited and expectant. There was another crowd at Central Park and Sixty-fourth [Holm at once applied the emergency]

Got His Training in Leadville.

Known, this afternoon jumped from the policeman Bolz came up and at Miss request arcested Robinson on a charge of reckless driving. She walked with them to the bridge police walked with them to the bridge police walked with them to the Manhaitan Avenue Court, declaring she would not a few the first man asked him: Mr. Barnard, who is sixty-two years "Can I get a room here for the > Without closing the safe door Mr. Barnard turned and answered: "I'm sorry. The house is full Haven't a room I could offer you." A second later the masked man slipped up to the desk and poking his gun into Mr. Barnard's face said in a rough voice:

"Now give me every cent in that safe and be quick about it." Two other hotel employees, Beverly W. Goodman and Walter Herbert, were in a rear office. They came out laughng, thinking Mr. Barnard was the vicim of a practical joke. Mr. Harnard was inclined to laugh, too, at first. Then | ty-three-year-old son Anthony learned him that he was in danger of being "He commanded me to hold up my me hands," said Mr. Barnard, "out I made that he is punished," said the actress us a lunge to get hold of the revolver. At ting along mockly from their Flatbush the same instant the man fired. The home into Church avenue. The passed through my right hand and stupped in front of No. 207. lodged in the wall. Twice the man "Now you wall here and don't dare snapped the revolver, but it missed fire move" Mr. Morch commanded. Then He had the muzzle of the gun preased she rang the ball, and in response Mar-against my breast." Goodman and Herbert ran through a ear door to get the police just as the along with us." ellboy shied a cuspidor at the banding Fice in Their Auto. At the same time Dr. Fox rushed from the case in the case of the first floor. the two men ran to the street, isaped nto the automobile and were off at to.

Losiantly all was excitement in the cuests on the eighth floor. Then the eries of the boy and the running of the

The policy reserves came and spread out in all directions, but there was to clue to the andits. Mr. Barnard was taken to Roosevel Hospital, where his wound was dress-Later he was removed to the hotel. The builet which passed through his han was found in the wall. As Mr. Barnard

Who Sits at Race Bribe Trial JUDGE SEABURY.

Star Witness and the Justice

FOELKER

MAMA SHATTERS

ROMANCE; TAKES

Leads Anthony and Margaret to Marriage Bureau and

"Cancels" Contract.

Elste More is a strong minded wors an. When she makes up her mind to a on your but at once and come with

Anthony did, and found himself tro-

"Margaret, get your hat and come

In alleme the party wendel its way

o Borough Hall and to the Marriag

"Mr. Chris" she said, "tais license-

Sincteen Raid Prisoners Held.

a voids un sucafied gambling houses

ofer, is herewith curvelled

Margaret size obeyed.

thing it is necessar to argue. Her twen-

the menace in the man's voice warned this to his great dismay this morning

THE LICENSE BACK

ARCHBISHOP'S BODY

Conveyed Four Blocks to Tomb, While 100,000 Watch

PHILADELPHIA, Feb. 16.-The body of Archbishop Patrick John Ityan was to be taking similar examinations, politan. It was one of the greatest onerals ever held in Philadelphia. Practically all the prominent figures. the hierarchy of the Roman Catholic hurch in the United States particiated in the elaborate service, and hunreds of priests from all parts of the After the selemn mass of requiem, at nen Cardinal Glibbons, Mgr. Falson: autution was pronounced by five of e attending prelates, one of them beif the church concluded the bods was ront door, where it was placed on a neral carriage. Then with the feares of the belover metropolitan exsed to view a procession was formed ozun Square, Which is opposite th 'athledral and comprises four large city cles. Directly behind the carriage ome the seminarians and following eann clergy, the various religious and

It is estimated that 100,000 persons saw the unusual and solemn procession as it

e monsigners, the blahops, the area

the down a state of Cathedral the body of the Archbishop tain official transcripts tracing the was conveyed to the ergpt beneath the tory of the anti-racing bills before the before it was entembed, and walls this fingers. bust reremony was being performed the man. During the church services the fered the racing bills. body of the Archbishop rested upon a Nineteen prisoners arrested in Dop- catafaique in front of the high alian several years. His term as a Senator Commissioner Flynn's avdraulle it was garned in the full rich vestments expired when mine began." of the office of Archiebop, monating the mitre. There it remained until aging Admissions After He Swears the Defendant Offered Him a $12,000 Race Bill Bribe.

Forces the Congressman Into Dam-

CLOSELY QUESTIONS HIM ABOUT CHECK TRANSACTION

He Confesses That When He Passed the State Regents' Examination He Was Living With Max Sosinsky, Now in Prison for Impersonating Others.

Congressman Otto G. Foelker of Brooklyn gave some amazzing testimony to-day at the trial of former State Senator Frank G. Gardner. who is accused before Justice Seabury in the Criminal Branch of the Supreme Court of offering to bribe legislators to vote against the Agnew-Hart anti-race track gambling bills when they were before the State Legislature at the session of 1908.

Foelker made the direct and unqualified statement that Gardner offered to pay him $12,000 for his vote against the bills, this being, according to what he said Gardner told him, $2,000 more than the

But it was while Foelker was undergoing cross-examination that the surprising testimony was brought out. Foelker, under the questioning of Max Steuer, had to admit to a hazy memory of his early On Funeral Car Mgr. Ryan Is education. The cross-examiner attempted to show by inference that Foelker had east his first vote illegally and that there was something suspicious about his examination before the State Regents for admission to the bar. The witness was forced to admit that when he took the examination he was living with Max Sosinsky, who was sentenced last week to Blackwell's Island for impersonating persons who were supposed to-day entombed in the crypt beneath In an effort to show, at least by in- saw him one day on State street in the high alter of the Cathedral of St. ference, that Sosinsky had imperson- Albany, but had no conversation with Peter and St. Paul in this city, follow- ated Fonker at the Regents' examina- him. Later we met aboard a Pullman ng funeral services that were imposing tion the lawyer made the witness say car. This was before there had been a and in keeping with the dignity of the that Sosineky had written to the Re-high office held by the departed Metroafternoon Mr. Steller devoted much Thursday before the taking of that vote, time to a check which had been given I am able to fix the time because to Foelker by a man named Hilder Thursday was my regular day for conbrand. The witness insisted that it ing home to spend the week end. was a campaign contribution.

thi safternoon. The news had gone Albany at 2.15 o'clock P. M., and had out that Foelker was undergoing a been traveiling some time when Jaco ast were also present. The cathedra surging and hundreds of persons fought Ellperin, whom I knew by sight as Mr. as filled with a crowd of 1,000 persons, their way into the court-room. The Gardner's serretary, came up and setheir way into the court-room. The Gardner's secretary, came up and ecproceedings of the day were opened costed me. He gave me a message and with the speech of Assistant Districts as a result of that message I wont to Attorney Nott outlining the case to the a certain drawing-room compart

Mr. Steuer Interrupts.

Max Steuer, onlef counsel for the derense, repeatedly interrupted Mr. Nott. with technical objections, but Nott went ahead outlining what he expected to prove without show of rancor and little more than an hour, Mr. Nott there came a scort, stout, build, sport tacked man of forty-clast or there-about the present Congressman from the Eastern District of Kings County centre of the big Albany fight of lies Foetker was plainly nervous as he took he stand. There was a delay while Mr. With the return of the cortege to the Nott by consent filed for the record cer-

Answering Mr. Nott, the witness said versation. "Benedictor" was chanted by the sense he was born in Germany, came nere as "I did not see Senator Gardner again parishs in unison with the viergy.

a boy of fourteen, lived in Troy, N. Y., except to exchange greetings, but a The celebrant of the territor mass for a while, and in 1825 moved to Brook- few weeks later, while I was in the was Eishop Prendergast, while Arche lyn, where he mid since resided. He summer home of my parents at Staatsbishop Giennon of St. Louis, delivered was elected to the Senate from the Taird burg, N. Y., recovering from the efthe eulogy, which was an elequent trib. District in lies and took office in 1907. He feets of an operation for appendicities ute to Archbishop Ryan as priest and remembered when Senator Agnew of Mr. Floyd Adams, a clerk at one of

"I have known ex-Senator Gardner for came to see me."

was a campaign contribution.

There was a scent crowd at the t-last secondary, John Rayher. We had and found Mr. Gardner sitting there

Tells of Bribe Offer. "Senator Gardner Invited me to come n and sit down. He said at once " 'We need your vote against that race track bill. We'll make it worth your while to come with an I believe you are a friend of mine and I am empowered to make you an offer. We have paid some other Senators $10,000 apiece for their votes, but I will give you $12,000 because I like you. I'll pay you $2,000 down, $3,000 after the vote is taken and the balance when the Governor calls an extra session. in case he calls one. How about 15?

told him that I couldn't do Itat I was opposed to gambling in all forms and that I did not care to dis-uss the matter with him further, to come over to them-that my constituents believed in the race tracks, and that in addition to giving me money he could promise me strong poafter, where the heal decement took Legislature for that year. Congressman litical influences in securing my replace. The beautiful casket containing Foelker sat in the mean time in the will election or in getting me the nominathe budy was scaled in a leaden case nees chair, fidgeting and twiddling his tion for any other office I might want. I still refused and that ended the con-

the Brooklyn magistrates'

One Story Delayed. At this point, on Mr. Steuer's objetion, "Did you ever discuss with him the Foelker's account of his conversation ght on these bills?" with adams was excluded as nearest view, only once," said Foelker. "I evidence, with the proviso that Adams public welfare. The public is entitled to know what is going on.